JUNE 15, 2017 – ROANOKE’S INDIE FILMMAKER TO DISTRIBUTE FILMS OVERSEAS

Winter Park, FL – Thursday, June 15, 2017 – Marc A Hutchins, filmmaker, has signed a deal with California-based distributor, MultiVisionnaire Pictures, to distribute his films overseas.

Truth & Justice and Nearly Married are both family-friendly features films, produced by Alexander Films, a Roanoke-based, full service production company. They were shot in Roanoke, VA in 2014, and screened at The Grandin Theater.

Roanoke native, actress Jen Lilley, appears as supporting roles in both films. “Working with Marc, and the Alexander Films team, was an unexpected pleasure. Small indie film productions typically don’t measure up to Hollywood productions, but this one did.”

“The opportunity to produce my features in Roanoke was a dream come true,” says director, Marc A Hutchins, “The support was overwhelming.”

Marc has taken a teaching position at San Diego Christian College in Santee, CA, but states, “Although leaving is bitter sweet, I know I’ll be back one day, looking for an opportunity to produce my next Virginia feature.”
